Dear Duane -

On the final day of yet another year your Christmas note truly brought many tears to my eyes.

I feel so very proud that you would consider me as your mentor. A compliment I shall cherish but hardly deserve.

Life has been quite good to me and to Kay as well.
We have passed our 53rd year of marriage and continue to enjoy our four children & thirteen grandchildren.

Pitman is still a private the Esop Co & it will reach close to 365 million in sales. It is hard to believe I was with the company when it reached its first million in a year.

We spend 4½ months in Scottsdale as Wisconsin winters are all too hard & long Warmest Regards
Paul
